

OWNERSHIP AND COMMERCIAL RIGHTS OF CRAZZZY MONSTER NFTS

By minting a Crazzy Monsters (CM) NFT from our smart contract, purchasing it from the secondary market, or obtaining it through any other legitimate means, the Holder is granted full ownership and commercial rights to the NFT and its unique artwork. The License granted to the Holder is limited to the Licensed NFT CM, allowing them to use and reproduce the Licensed CM NFT for tribute or derivative art, merchandise, or sharing with third party projects. The Holder agrees not to use or market any CM NFT in any project or derivative work involving hate speech, racism, pornography, or any other illegal or unlawful content. Upon sale or transfer of the NFT, all ownership and commercial rights are immediately transferred to the new Holder. No refunds will be issued to any Holder upon a lawful purchase of any NFT or CM. If a Holder purchases a CM from the secondary market, they will be bound by the Terms of Service of that platform.

ART AND CREATIVE DESIGN

Any Attributes associated with a CM are used as a parody and are not sponsored, endorsed, or affiliated with any companies or third-party licensors.

LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY FOR GAS, FAILED TRANSACTIONS, SMART CONTRACT BUGS

Participants in minting CM NFTs agree to hold the project Creative Team harmless for any losses incurred due to gas fees for failed transactions, excessive gas fees due to website or smart contract bugs, or loss of NFTs due to website or smart contract bugs.

NO GUARANTEES OR FUTURE PROMISES

While the CM Creative Team has released a roadmap outlining future goals and plans, we cannot guarantee the accomplishment of every item during the launch planning phase as ideas and projects may evolve organically. Your purchase of a CM from our initial launch of 10,000 NFTs guarantees only what is received with the initial purchase, whether through primary or secondary channels. Any future benefits are ancillary to this purchase and not to be considered with the initial purchase. You acknowledge that you are not relying on any future commitments by The CM Team in using this site and participating in our NFT launch.

NO GUARANTEES OF VALUE

CM NFTs were created solely as collectibles and not as investment vehicles or substitutes for cryptocurrency. We make no promises or guarantees that these NFTs will retain monetary value in fiat, cash, or cryptocurrency.

TAXES

Each Holder is solely responsible for any Federal or State tax liabilities that may arise from minting or reselling CM NFTs.

CLASS ACTION WAIVER, JURISDICTION AND CHOICE OF LAW

You agree to waive any class action status, and any legal disputes related to the Crazzy Monsters project must be brought on an individual basis in the chosen jurisdiction and governed by the chosen law.
